or. Robert Frazer warmly favored the adoption of the report of the commission in a chaste and admirable address.

THE FINANCES.

THE FINANCES.

Dr. B. C. Hening made a supplementary report, giving some account of the work of the commission in raising money for the Bristol school and for Rawlings Institute. Dr. H. W. Tribble, president of the latter school, has already secured $1,300 on the $3,500 needed to pay the foating debts on this institution.

Dr. John Pollard cordially approved the paper of the commission as char and well guarded, and thought the association could well afford to adopt it without any change whatever. He had anxious moments about our denominational schools. He had some opportunity for knowing the purposes of those in charge schools. He had some opportunity for knowing the purposes of those in charge of public education, and they contem-plated nothing less than a complete sys-tem, including primary, secondary, col-legiate and technological institutions and the university at the top. The fate of our schools depends upon the hearty and united support of the denomination. Our schools must be made as good and as schools must be made as good and as inexpensive as any other.

MASTERFUL SPEECH.

special tribute to the work which Dr. C. H. Ryland had done in helping to trame the plan.

Rev. M. A. Jones thought that the report was so masterful that the delay was amply justified. He could cast his vote for the report with utmost enthusiasm. At the conclusion of this address, amid the greatest enthusiasm, the report was adopted by a rising vote, the audience singing with great ferver that old hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," the delegates giving the hand of fellowship. The body then received Dr. George B. Taylor, of Rome.

Dr. W. R. L. Smith offered a resolution urging the Educational Commission to submit to the association a comprehensive plan for the establishment of a central collegiate institution for women, properly endowed and affording scholastic stanards in keeping wh... the best colleges. It was adopted unanimously.

MEXT MEETING reace.

At the aferroom session the Committee on Time. Place and Preacher reported, through its chairman, Rev. Frank B. Beale, recommending that the next meeting be held with the First Church, of Petersburg, on Tuesday, November 16th, at 1800 P. M., with R. H. Pitt as preacher of the annual sermon and F. H. Martin as alternate.

Rev. George J. Holsday, superintendent of the orphanage, read the report of the trustees. The total cash receipts for the year have been more than $15.00; receipts of supplies nearly $3,000 more. The debt on the administration building has been reduced $2,500. Current expenses have been met up to the end of the association year. The total amount of cash which has passed through the hands of the treasurer since the orphanage was established, amounts to $155,43.06. There are now 133 orphans in the institution. There are twelve vacancies for girls and when the Portsmouth association cottage is finished, there will be room for about twenty-five boys. The report was discussed by Rev. T. H. Athey in a practical and informing address and was adonted.

The annual meeting of Wachovia His-The annual meeting of Wacnovia His-torical Society was held in the Home Mo-iavian Church this evening, the occasion being in connection with the sesqui-cen-tennial celebration. The first address was made by Rev. Paul De Schweinitz, of Bethenem Pa., who is here as a repre-sentative of the Northern Molavian Prosentative of the Northern Molavian Province.

Mr. C. B. Watson spoke on "The Moravians in the Revolutionary War." District-Attorney Hoiton went to Richmond to-day to represent the government in several cases before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. The Pulliam case is one of the cases to be argued.

A writ of e ror was issued some time ago in the Pulliam case, but it was never prosecuted. This writ is to be docketed and dismissed so that sentence can be put into effect at the December term of the Federal Court in Charlotte.

SUIT FOR FAIKING WITH A PETRIFIED MAN

(Special to The Times-D'spatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 14.—Some time ago an alleged petrified man was dug up on the farm of 'Squire A. W. Sitton, near Hendersonville. A party of capitalists bought the specimen, and started out on a tour of the county with it. It was charged that the petrified man was a fake, and the company exhibiting him is said to have lost money. Suit was brought against 'Squire Sitton for perpetrating a fraud, and at Asheville to-day he was bound over to court in the sum of $15,000.

Thousands of Women Restored to Health by Swamp-Root.

Women as Well as Men Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

WOMEN suffer untold misery because the nature of their disease is not always correctly understood; in many cases when doctoring they are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for their ills, when in fact disordered kidneys are the chief cause of their distressing troubles. Perhaps you suffer almost continually with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and utter exhaustion.

NEW SAYINGS OF JESUS

Valuable Papyri Unearthed in Egypt One Hundred Miles South of Cairo.

CAUSE ENORMOUS INTEREST

known sayings of Jesus Christ have been discovered in Egypt by archaeologist, who have dug up papyri, buried since the secand century, one hundred miles south of Cairo. Dr. Bernard P. Grenfell, who has been engaged in Egyptian excavations since 1294, at the general meeting of the Egypt exploration fund here, yesterday gave the following details:

Accompanied by Dr. Hunt, Dr. Grenfell found a rich Ptolemaic necropolis at Ei-Hibeh. The bulk of the documents from one mound consisted of a collection fell found a rich Ptolemaic necropolis at Ei-Hibeh. The bulk of the documents from one mound consisted of a collection of sayings of Jesus. They are all introduced with the words "Jesus saith," and for the most part are new. The ends of the lines, unfortunately are often obliterated. Apparently all the sayings were addressed to St. Thomas. One of the most remarkable is:

"Let not him that seeketh cease from his search until he find; and when he finds he shall wonder; wondering he shall reach the kingdom, and when he reaches the kingdom, he shall have rest."

Dr. Grentell remarked that enormous interest would be groused by the discoveries on account of the variations they disclosed from accepted texts. One variant of the mystical saying, recorded in St. Luke, "The kingdom of God is within you," was of great value, as the saying in the papyrus appeared in quite different surroundings from those attributed to it by the evangelist, and extended far into another region.

According to Dr.ii Grenten, these sayings form the new gospel, which is traditionally associated with St. Thomas.

An interesting variation of the gospel according to St. Luke, eleventh chapter and fifty-second verse, reads in the payrus:

"Te have hidden the key of knowledge, ye en wad not yourselves, and to them that were entering in, ye did not open."

Another fragment contained a discourse of Christ, closely related to passages of the sermon on the mount, and His direcipes, in which Christ answers a question as to when it kingdom would be realized, esaying:

"When ye return to the state of innecence which existed before the fall."

A valuable fluid was made in papyril, written in Latin, siving the text of the epistic to the Hebrews, and an epitome of Livy's Six Lost Books. This, with other papyri covering the period 169-137 B. C., thraw much new and valuable information on the history of the world and marked the recovery of hitherto lost classical literature of Egypt.
